KEYNOTES:

Mila Gascó
Universidad Ramon Llull

More and more, public administrations are forced to co-produce. Co-production does not need ICT but ICT facilitate and speed up the processes of co-production

Hans Jochen Scholl
University of Washington

My keynote inspects various defining aspects of the conjoined and overlapping academic study domains of e-government and e-participation.

Robert Krimmer
Tallinn University of Technology

My keynote will show what is to build a functioning e-democracy and its relation to other parts of the digital eco-system.

In my keynote, I will present multidimensional open data and, hopefully, I will convince CeDEM participants on their importance.

Efthimios Tambouris
University of Macedonia
